

NUMBER CRUNCHER

Discover your destiny: toss a coin onto the grid, then read the fortune that corresponds to your lucky number

1 Concentrate on yourself this year. Balance is key; listen to your gut. Many new people will enter your life, so it's time to wind up those personal issues that have been niggling away for the past 12 months.

2 Put to rights any mistakes you've made. Heal emotional wounds, and forgive. Family is your focus this year. Your finances are in for a major boost – manage your money carefully as it rolls in. Aim not to make promises you can't keep.

3 Let bygones be bygones in 2013 – hold your tongue and don't make a mountain out of a molehill. Be generous with your time, love and friendship. It's not a good time to start a new business venture – just go with the flow.

4 The year ahead will be challenging with great rewards. It's time to move forward. Be persistent but keep your cool. Your love life is at the forefront, with building healthy relationships a priority.

5 Slow and steady wins in 2013. It's all about give and take, communication and compassion. Don't take things too personally and commit to keeping your stress levels down. Expect opportunities in both love and work by year's end.

6 Surround yourself with positive people and you'll have a fantastic year. You'll experience great success in love, friendship, your social life and career, and you'll achieve some long-held goals. Don't forget to take care of your health.

7 It's all work and no play for you this year! You'll need to be determined and stay focused if you want to get ahead. Many exciting opportunities are available to you but don't jump in too quickly. Be realistic. Trusting your intuition is a must.

8 Freedom, independence and lots of travel are on the cards for you in 2013. Watch your spending; open a savings account. Don't make hasty decisions through restlessness – this is a time of personal growth.

9 Your year will be all about family, your home life, friends and creativity. Relationships, marriage and pregnancy are all around number 9s – it's likely to be a very domestic year. Develop your hidden artistic talents and manage your time well.
